The show will travel to the White Mountains May 8 and 9. The program will run live from 5-9 a.m. on May 8 at Woodland Lake Park in Pinetop-Lakeside and May 9 at the Greer Lodge Resort.

Residents of each city are encouraged to come out and be part of the show. 3TV personalities will give out autographed photos each day from 9-10 a.m. The first 200 people on-site at each location will receive a special souvenir road trip bandana. 3TV's sun safety program with the shade foundation will also be featured.

On-air personalities from the popular show will be on-site, including Tara Hitchcock, Brad Perry, Dan Davis, Scott Pasmore and Olivia Fierro. While the good morning Arizona crew works on the ground, helicopter pilot Bruce Haffner will showcase Arizona's grandeur from the sky with breathtaking aerials.

A production crew of more than 20 people will be on the road for the two-week trip with 15 vehicles, including a Good Morning Arizona road trip branded RV.

3TV's hot air balloon will also be part of the road trip in certain locations. The road trip is sponsored by the Arizona Office of Tourism and Navajo Nation Parks and Recreation.

KTVK (3TV) President and General Manager Mark Higgins said, "Our road trip was so popular last year that we decided to visit other cities this year. Because KTVK is known for reflecting the spirit of Arizona and its people, we want to use the power of our air to showcase its beauty and history. New residents in particular will enjoy this introduction to our great state."

People can visit 3TV's Web site, www.azfamily.com, for blogs from the field, travel trivia and photos. Good Morning Arizona's road trip destinations will also include: Wickenburg, Yuma, Lake Havasu City, Bullhead City, Temple Bar, Window Rock, Safford and Globe/Miami.
